Advantages

With Uber, you have security and peace of mind. Also, Uber is cheaper than any other type of rides. Taxi charges fare and the tip, but with Uber everything is included in the price you pay. Uber allow ride sharing also called carpool which makes it cheaper.

Disadvantages

- You have a big responsibility for your passengers.
- Taxi drivers don't make much money.
- You don't have a regular schedule.
- Taxi drivers have to work at nighttime.
- Some cab drivers even have to work on weekends and holidays.
- Can be problematic for your family life.

Application

Uber links passengers with drivers using the Uber app. Generally, the drivers own their own car. The company does also offer rental or lease on cars through third party partners like Hertz, Get Around and Fair. UberFleet is an app for those managing squads of drivers.

Conclusion

In general, the example offered by Uber can be used by many developing companies. Nowadays, it is not a difficult task to create an organization and introduce some new, unusual services. However, it is always challenging to gain a good reputation, prove the quality of the services, and create appropriate working conditions.

Uber is the company with a complicated history. Still, its founders had made something that was impossible: they survived sabotages, strikes, and discontents of the governments of different countries around the whole world. The necessity to provide people with good services at affordable prices is urgent nowadays. Not all people are able to use the quality they want. Uber opens new perspectives and possibilities.

However, its attempts to cooperate with big cities only are not enough to become one of the best. It is necessary to make more improvements and encourage changes. Drivers are eager to work at different places. Uber can provide drivers with jobs and citizens with transportation services. The factors for success and challenges discussed in the current paper show that Uber has all chances to succeed in international marketing. The only thing that the company has to do is to continue developing and thinking about its employees.
